Customer Comments:

Return Policy

We offer our customers 60 days to return all undamaged and untampered parts. To begin a return please select the EZ Returns link on the footer of PhonePartsUSA.com. In this form, you may select the items you wish to return, the reason for the return and how you would like us to process the return (refund, store credit or replacement). Upon completion, print out and affix the RMA label on the return package. NOTE: Returns mailed without a RMA label are subject to longer processing times. All items which are not linked to RMAs (returned by mail or at our store-front) must be returned by the original purchaser (business account or individual account)

0-30 Days after order date:

All returned items in their original condition are eligible for full refund, store credit or replacement. Products returned in a used or non-original condition are subject to a 20-50% restocking fee. Shipping is non-refundable.

31-60 Days after order date:

All returned items in their original condition are eligible for store credit or replacement. The store credit amount will reflect on the current selling price or purchase price, whichever is lower. Products returned in a used or non-original condition are subject to a 20-50% re-stocking fee. Shipping is non-refundable.

61+ Days after order date

We do not accept returns past 61 days.

Shipping Damages

Customers are to report all shipping related damages within 5 business days of the shipping carrier delivery date. All damaged items must be photographed and emailed to our support team; help@phonepartsusa.com. The damaged product must be mailed back to our facility. Once received, the parts will be inspected by our Returns Department. If the damages are found to be shipping related, appropriate shipping and purchase cost reimbursement will be issued via store credit or product replacement.

Warranty

PhonePartsUSA offers a 60 day (lifetime for approved business customers) warranty on all parts and accessories purchased from our website. This warranty applies to all part defects. Part tampering and/or installation damage void eligibility.
